Julio "Jibby" Florini lived in small communities all of his life. His parents emigrated from Italy when they were very young. The son of a coal miner, Jibby was the first child in his family to further his education beyond high school by attending Sparks Business College in Shelbyville, IL. He believed with hard work and education, anything was possible. This is where his strong commitment to "give back" to the community began.

Jibby and Ruth have been blessed with a loving family and many friends. He never knew a stranger. He loved all youth as they were the future of any community. He was very active in supporting all avenues of Sullivan school district.
