

L.J. Hollonbeck Memorial Track Award Guidelines

Description

The L.J. Hollonbeck Memorial Track Award will be given annually in memory of L.J. "Lefty" Hollonbeck, an SHS graduate of the class of 1939, who was an outstanding athlete in both basketball and track. He held a school record in the 880 yd. dash for 58 years. He was a National Honor Society member and received the good citizenship award at SHS. During his lifetime he maintained a lively interest in the track athletes encouraging them to give their best to the sport, to display not only outstanding athletic ability but also dedication, courage, and good sportsmanship in all areas of their lives.

. This award is established to continue the encouragement of these principles in the track athletes.

Award Presentation

The L.J. Hollonbeck Memorial Track Award will be given annually at Awards Night to a graduating student of SHS who has displayed outstanding athletic ability in track and field. The selected student should possess the qualities of dedication, courage, and good sportsmanship.
